One Venkatamma was the holder of the Service Inam lands referred to which are described in the margin*. She died leaving an heir named Munisamy her grandson. A Sum of Rs. 49⊗—2—1 was due to Govt on account of the arrears of wet quitrent on the Service Inam lands. When a notice of demand on account of the arrears was issued to him, he endorsed on the same to the effect that as he was unable to clear off the Govt dues, the lands might be Sold and the arrears realized thereby. The Amildar accordingly ordered the lands to be Sold in public auction, at which one Magondi Nanjundappa purchased the Same for Rs. 49-2-0 in his brothers Rudrappa's name on the 21st March 1891. Thereupon it was found out that the purchaser Magondi Nanjundappa was the mortgagee of these Inam lands & that he had been enjoying them for 15 or 20 years. The deposition given by the villagers & the purchaser himself testify to the above fact.

2. When the case was Sub-mitted to the Deputy Commr for the confirmation of the Sale, the Dy: Commr pointed out to the Amildar that if the lands had Subsequent the arrears due on the Inam lands. The Dy: Commr. also ascertained from the Inam Supdt. that the lands in question were unenfranchised Service Inams & that they were Inams conformed on the Condition of rendering the Smiths' Service.

3. The Amildar was again asked to report after enquiry whether the said Munisamy was willing to retain the Inam lands to himself after discharging the arrears due by him & to render Service to the village Community, and whether the villagers were willing to retain the Service Inam lands & pay up the Jodi arrears & to appoint Some one to perform the duty of the Blacksmith. The Amildar, after examination of the villagers, the Shanbogue and the Patél, reported that Munisamy was not then living in that village, that his whereabouts could not be ascertained, that the villagers declined to keep the Inam lands to themselves on the ground that they had already engaged the Services of another Smith & that he was paid his miras, and that the arrears could only be realized by the Sale of the lands, and solicited that the Sale might be confirmed.

4. The Amildar was thereupon directed to collect the arrears from Magondi Nanjanduppa the Ambekhavadar Mortgagee of the Inam lands and report the result. When the Amildar communicated the above order to Nanjundappa, he deposed that the Sale proceeds of the lands, viz, Rs. 49-2-0 already towards the liquidation of the arrears and that the lands might be granted to him on Kandayam.

5. Under the above circumstances, the Dy: Commr: solicits Sanction to resume the aforesaid Inam lands, under clause 3, Rule XXXVI of the Mysore Land Rev: Rules and to give out the same ~~to Nanjundappa~~ on Kandayam as ordinary Sirkar lands.

6. In Govt Progs: No. 8828-9 / R.7.216-92 dt 16th Decr 192, Similar lands in the Nelamangala and Magadi Taluks were ordered resumed & fully to be assessed ~~and treated~~ as ordinary Kandayam lands.
